Special Events Planned (eg: Parades, Sweepstakes, Jr. Handling etc.): _____

All costs associated with the Regional show will be borne by the club/person holding the event.

Costs to be borne by the club/person holding the event include, but are not limited to, all fees payable to the CKC, site rental, judge's fees and expenses, trophies, ribbons and rosettes, ring steward, show secretary, cleanup, premium list, prizes and advertising.

Cash prizes for the Sweepstakes shall come from the Sweepstake entry fees.

Any profits resulting from the BCCI Regional Specialty will be retained by the club/person hosting the Specialty.

The club/person holding the BCCI Specialty will provide, in writing, a full financial disclosure of the BCCI Specialty, to the President of the BCCI within thirty (30) days of the event.

The club/person holding the Specialty will provide the President of the BCCI with a fully marked show catalogue within thirty (30) days of the event.

The club/person holding the Regional Specialty shall appoint a Show Chairperson for the event. The Show Chairperson or his/her family may not show, either personally or through a third party, any Boxers owned by the Show Chairperson.

The club/person applying for the BCCI Regional Specialty will complete and forward the original of all event date and associated forms to the Correspondence Secretary of the BCCI at least six months in advance of the show date.

Excerpt from the BCCI By-Laws:

Any application for a Regional Specialty will be published in the minutes. Any other club or member of the Boxer Club of Canada in the same Electoral Area as the club or member of the Boxer Club of Canada that made application for a Regional Specialty shall have thirty days to indicate a desire to compete for the Regional Specialty in that Electoral Area. If no other applications are received, the Regional Specialty will be awarded to the club or member of the Boxer Club of Canada originally applying for it.

The Regional Specialties can be applied for by letter, fax or email (scanned with signatures)

If more than one club or member of the Boxer Club of Canada Inc. applies for a Regional Specialty in the same Electoral Area, the decision as to who will be awarded the Regional Specialty will be determined by a majority vote of the members attending the next General meeting.

As with the National Specialty, the Regional Specialties will rotate within the Electoral Area unless no other club or member of the Boxer Club of Canada applies to hold the Regional Specialty.

Declaration of the Show Chairperson - BCCI Regional Specialty

I agree to the conditions outlined above and understand that any Boxers owned by me or my immediate family may not be shown, either personally or through a third party,

If there are co-show chairpersons, both are to complete this declaration.
